ACCREDITATION

All delegates visiting the Palais des Nations must first register with the conference Secretariat.

IDENTIFICATION BADGES

On arriving for a conference, accredited delegates should visit the Security and Safety Service at the Pregny Gate to collect their identification badges. Delegates must present their national identification card or passport, as well as their confirmation paper. On the first day of a conference, delegates are encouraged to arrive early to allow sufficient time to complete these formalities

PARKING AUTHORIZATIONS

Parking is not allowed for delegates, but only for staff members. However, parking authorizations are granted for delegates wishing to park on the premises and matching specific conditions. To this end, their permanent mission in Geneva should request authorization in advance to the Security and Safety Service.

SECURITY AT THE PALAIS DES NATIONS

For security reasons, the identification badge must be worn and visible to UNOG Security staff at all times while visiting UNOG.

UNOG

The United Nations Office at Geneva is a centre of multilateral diplomacy that provides a dynamic platform for collaboration, dialogue and action on global priorities. It is the representative office of the Secretary-General in Switzerland and the second largest UN duty station, with more than 1,500 staff representing close to 120 nationalities.

ARCHIVES / LIBRARY

The reading rooms are open to external researchers (professors, historians, etc.), university students as well as UN affiliates for the purpose of their professional work or research studies.

BUILDING B
8:30 am - 5:30 pm

UNITED NATIONS MUSEUM AT GENEVA

The permanent exhibition, "From the League of Nations to the United Nations" invites visitors to interact with exceptional archives, witnesses to the development of the international system since the early 20th century. Multilateral diplomacy, human rights, refugee protection, and economic and social development are among the themes addressed, from the pioneering work of the League of Nations to today's challenges faced by the United Nations in Geneva. Inquiries for guided tours and group visits at: leaguemuseum@unog.ch
