These Priority 4 Words into Action Guidelines were developed by multi-stakeholder working groups representing various countries, academia, civil society, private sector, intergovernmental organizations and the United Nations. Please see the acknowledgements of each publication for their working group members.